London, Jan. 5, 1729.

WHereas a COACHMAN, who for his unparallel'd and conſummate Impudence has, for many Years paſt, gone by the Name of BRAZEN-FACE; about fifty Years of Age; full bodied; brown Complexion; five Feet ten Inches high, or thereabout; has loſt a Tooth in the forepart of his upper Jaw; dirty Hands; light finger'd; a heavy, clumſy, ſlouching, wadling Gate; an affected Toſs with his Head; a ſupercilious, ſneering, grinning Look; of a malicious, vindictive, ſanguinary Nature; a ſaucy, inſulting, overbearing, imperious Behaviour in Proſperity; a poor, low, wretched, mean, abject Spirit in Adverſity; of a perfidious, impious, atheiſtical Principle; remarkably addicted to Lying; an ignorant, forward, poſitive, unexperienced, headſtrong, blundering Driver; deſpiſed, contemned and hated by all his Maſter's faithful Servants; generally wears a Livery trimm'd with blue; garters below Knee; formerly ſerv'd a Widow Lady of the firſt Rank, till he was diſmiſs'd her Service for ſelling her Corn and Hay, for which he was committed, and lay ſeveral Months in Priſon, and till her Death could not get into Service again; (but wander'd about in the Scorn and Contempt of every one that knew him) but upon her Demiſe procured himſelf to be choſe Poſtillion, and afterwards COACHMAN, in the Service of his late Miſtreſs's Succeſſor, who was a perfect Stranger to all his ſcandalous, baſe, wicked and corrupt Practices; HAS plunged, bewilder'd and overſet his preſent Maſter; impoſed upon and deceiv'd his Miſtreſs, and plunder'd, robb'd and ſtript the whole Family, which is exceeding numerous.

If any Perſon or Perſons will ſeize and apprehend the ſaid Coachman, and bring him to the Ax & Block upon Tower hill or to the Gibbet & Halt: in Tiburn Road ſo that he may be brought to Juſtice, and dealt with as he deſerves, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be nobly rewarded, and eminently diſtinguiſhed by all the Family.

N. B. If the ſaid Coachman is not apprehended by the 13th inſtant, he ſhall be more particularly deſcrib'd, with his Name commonly call'd his Chriſtian Name and his Sir-name at length.

I Sr. Robert Walpole said to be so at ye time
